

Nominations sought for Greece Small Business of the Year

Staff reports • June 14, 2010

The Greece Chamber of Commerce has announced a call for nominations for their second annual Small Business of the Year Award.

The Award will be handed out at a luncheon in November and is being sponsored by Genesee Regional Bank and the Democrat & Chronicle. The winner will be submitted for the national Small Business of the Year award sponsored by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

Nominations for Greece businesses can be submitted at www.greecechamber.org or by calling 227-7272.

The Greece Chamber of Commerce is the largest suburban Chamber of Commerce in Monroe County. The organization provides benefits, networking and promotional opportunities to businesses.
